

"NET-MED Youth, through their support in building the national youth coalition, has facilitated a shift in youth and youth organizations' mentality: rather than competing with each other, youth are now increasingly striving to compliment each other's work."

- Mohammad Al-Amoush, JOHUD

WORKING TOGETHER FOR CHANGE

"Youth represent a key cornerstone and if we lose this generation, we lose investing in the long-term success of our country."

- Rana Altaher, TAMMEY

"Youth are a majority – we can't afford to leave their voices unheard and allow them to be perceived as a burden. Youth are the only reliable resource MENA can depend on for the future."

- Sami Hourani, FORSA

HIGHLIGHTS OF YOUTH FEEDBACK

The NET-MED Youth Project is funded by the European Union

NET-MED YOUTH (NETWORKS OF MEDITERRANEAN YOUTH) IS A THREE-YEAR PROJECT IMPLEMENTED BY UNESCO AND FUNDED BY THE EU.

IN JORDAN, THE POSITIVE IMPACT OF THE NET-MED YOUTH PROJECT HAS BEEN WIDESPREAD. HERE IS WHAT PEOPLE ARE SAYING:

"NET-MED Youth ensures an open dialogue on the challenges youth are facing such as high levels of unemployment and low levels of participation of young women in the workforce in Jordan. If we don't invest in youth, the cost will be tremendous for the economy of Jordan."

- Basem Kanan, MOPIC

PLATFORMS FOR DIALOGUE

"The NET-MED Youth project has created a strong way for youth organizations to work together, under one umbrella, learning about each other, networking and collaborating."

- Mohamed Al-Amoush, JOHUD

"The best resource to invest in is the human resource of youth."

- Rafat Badran, NAYA for Training and Community Development

PROMOTING YOUNG TALENTS

"NET-MED Youth focuses on encouraging youth within Jordan to help themselves and see the importance of working on their own communities first to effect important change."

- Ayat Amer, Student and Youth Activist

"Providing youth in rural areas across Jordan with the opportunity to put their talents to work through meaningful engagement, inspires such youth to develop stronger life skills."

- Husam Tarawneh, Creativity Club Karak

AMPLIFYING YOUTH VOICES

"As a result of this strong work, youth from across all the Governorates in Jordan are beginning to communicate more fluidly and streamline national efforts in a way that was impossible before."

- Eng. Nayazi Ahmed Rasheed

"It is so important for civil society to hold the government accountable as we strive to create youth interventions based on evidence rather than emotion."

- Kamel Alnabulsi, TAMMEY

"What I love about the NET-MED Youth project is that it has not tried to change us. Instead, it has reinforced the valuable work we are doing in Jordan."

- Sami Hourani, FORSA
